Genoa, December 15.

YEsterday being appointed for the publick Audience of Mr. Davenant, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great Britain, he was attended from his Houſe by the Britiſh Conſul, with ſeveral Gentlemen Merchants and others of that Nation here, as alſo by a good Number of Germans, Spaniards, and French, and in general by all the Conſuls ſettled here and the Merchants of their reſpective Nations, being conducted by the Maſter of the Ceremonies, and accompanied by four Noblemen deputed by this Republick. In the Streets that lead to the Palace, he was joined by a greater Concourſe of our Nobility than has been ſeen on the like Occaſions. There being at this Time about 30 Britiſh Ships in the Port, they fired all their Guns at his entring the Palace. Being introduced with the uſual Ceremonies, he made a Speech in Latin to the Doge and Senate, which was anſwered by the Doge in the Genoeſe Dialect. After which he was re conducted to his Houſe. The Fox, a Britiſh Man of War, continues here.

Warſaw, Dec. 5. Since the Treaty of Pacification was concluded and ratified, new Differences have riſen. The principal is this, The Confederates pretend that the Officers which they had in their Troops, ſhould have the ſame Poſts in the Army that is to be formed; but it being the King's Prerogative to nominate the Military Officers, His Majeſty has choſen ſuch as were firm to his Party during the Troubles. The greateſt Part of the preſent Army is to be disbanded at the Opening of the Diet, which was to have begun on the 29th paſt; but upon the fore mentioned Pretenſion of the Confederates, it is put off. In the mean Time the Marſhals of the Confederates, who ſome Days ago came to Praag, on the other Side of the Viſtula over againſt this City, hold frequent Conferences with the Chiefs of the Nobility, and refuſe to come over the Viſtula till they have ſuch Security from the King for their Perſons as they require.

Copenhagen, Dec. 12. On the 9th the King went from hence to Fredericksbourg, accompanied by the Counts of Holſt and Reventlau; and after ſome Days Stay there, His Majeſty deſigns to go to Stevens, to view the Diſpoſitions newly made for Quartering thereabouts 5 Regiments of Horſe conſtantly for the future. We are in great Concern for the Ships of War and Tranſports which ſailed from hence the Beginning of this Month for Norway, under the Command of Commadore Tordenſchild, having on Board between 4 and 5000 Land-Forces; becauſe they were diſperſed by a violent Storm the Night between the 4th and 5th in the Categat: Several of the Tranſports are returned into the Sound, much ſhattered, but we have no Account yet of the reſt of them, nor of their Convoy, which conſiſted of 2 Men of War and a Frigate.

Berlin, Dec. 19. On the 17th Inſtant the King of Pruſſia went to hunt the wild Boar at Schonbecke, and is expected back on the 22d or 23d. M. Kniphauſen, Son in Law to M. Ilgen, who has been employed for ſome Years in France and Denmark, is named to wait on His Britannick Majeſty at Hanover; and his Inſtructions being already drawn, he will ſet out in two or three Days. The Czarin, who had been left at the Court of Mecklenbourg to lie in there, intends now to follow the Czar to Holland, where 'tis ſaid he propoſes to ſtay two Months. M. Heuſch, His Britannick Majeſty's Reſident here, ſets out on the 21ſt for Hanover. M. Wallenroden is gone with the Prince of Wirtemberg to Stutgard, in the Commiſſion for which M. Schlippenbach had at firſt been named. Letters from Thorn of the 7th Inſtant, ſay the Ruſſian General Bauer had his Head Quarters then at Gnieſen, and was preparing to quarter his Troops, to the Number of 4000 Men, in the Diſtricts of Neuburg, Dirſchau, and Dantzick.

Horſe-Guards, Dec. 20, 1716.

Whereas His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales hath been pleaſed to appoint a Board, conſiſting of General Officers, and others, to examine into the Pretenſions of all Perſons, who do claim, or at preſent enjoy, the Benefit of half Pay upon the Eſtabliſhment of Great Britain, as reduced Officers of the Land Forces or Marines. Theſe are to give Notice, that the ſeveral reduced Officers upon Half Pay, lately belonging to the following Regiments, and now in Great Britain, who have or ſhall not appear on the reſpective Days mentioned for their Appearance, as was Publiſhed in the Gazette of Tueſday the 27th of November laſt, are hereby required to appear in Perſon, before the ſaid Board, in the Great Room at the Horſe-Guards, upon the reſpective Days following appointed for the Recall, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, at which Time the Liſt will be cloſed, and they are to bring with them their Commiſſions, or authentick Certificates of them, in order to their Examination: And ſuch of them as do not appear, will be ſtruck off the Half Pay.

And it being His Royal Highneſs's Command, That the Field-Officers and Agents of the ſaid Regiments ſhould likewiſe attend at the ſame Time, They are thereby required ſo to do.
